THE TEAM AT ITALIANO CAN HELP YOU UNDERSTAND YOUR COVERAGE

YOU SHOULDN'T NEED A DICTIONARY TO FIGURE OUT YOUR INSURANCE POLICY

For nearly 50 years, Italiano Insurance has helped you find reliable and affordable insurance for your home, automobile and business. An independent, family-owned agency, the team of 21 highly-trained professionals has served the Tampa community with great care and integrity, always delivering the utmost level of personalized attention. Italiano was founded on the principle that relationships are the key to success, and the number one priority of its agents is to gain your trust and build a long-lasting bond. This means returning calls the very same day, offering 24-hour turn-around time and taking the time to meet with you one-on-one, either in person or over the phone, to review your options. Unfortunately, this level of concern for the client's best interest isn't commonly found within the insurance industry—especially lately.

Over the past few months and counting, thousands of people have been dropped by their insurance provider. But despite the negativity swirling around the industry, business for Italiano has never been better. Because Italiano is an independent agency, it isn't bound to just one company. Instead, it has personal relationships with many different carriers, which allows the flexibility to select one that offers the most comprehensive coverage and best price tailored to each individual's specific needs.

"We offer free, no-obligation insurance reviews to everyone," co-owner Jeff Italiano says. "And what we've found is that nine out of 10 people don't know the specifics of what coverage they have. In many cases, they simply trusted a big-name insurance company for 20-plus years, but never spoke with anyone directly to educate them about their coverage. At the very least, we want people to walk out of our office understanding their current policy and the other options that are available to them."

Whether you've been dropped by your current insurance carrier or are simply unhappy with your service or agent, let Italiano Insurance show you what an experienced, caring team can do for you, and your peace of mind.
